Dr Keryln Carville PhD, RN, STN(Cred)
 Associate Professor Domiciliary Nursing
 Silver Chain Nursing Association and Curtin University of Technology
 Western Australia.

Keryln has an expansive clinical practice in wound and ostomy management and has an ongoing commitment to research and education within these domains. Keryln is a Founding and Life Member of the Western Australia Wound Care Association. She was admitted as an Inaugural Fellow of the Australian Wound Management Association (AWMA) in 2006. Keryln is Chairperson of the Australian Pressure Ulcer Advisory Panel (APUAP) and Chairperson of the Australian Wound Management Association Subcommittee for the development and review of Australian Standards of Wound Management, and a member of the AWMA Venous Leg Ulcer Committee (VLUC). In addition, she sits on the Editorial Board for Journal of Wound Practice and Research and the Journal of Stomal Therapy Australia and is actively involved in the development and role out of the WoundsWest© project. The latter Western Australian Health Department initiative is a key program under the reform package of Ambulatory Care and Chronic Disease Management. Silver Chain is the largest home nursing agency in Western Australia and Keryln has a joint position at Curtin University of Technology for the development and coordination of postgraduate programs in domiciliary nursing and wound research.

The TWCA are proud to be able host Keryln in Tasmania where she will share some of her immeasurable knowledge and incredible enthusiasm for skin integrity and wound management.

The Wound Care Manual (5th edition), written by Keryln, is a ready reference for clinicians. It is available online from the Silver Chain Association. This is an up to date practical guide for the management of all types of wounds.
